An Early Primary.

All indications point to an early Republican primary election. It will likely be the latter part of February or the early part of March. The bees are already buzzing in all quarters of the county. There will not be a dearth of candidates for any of the positions to be filled.

The primary election must be held early in order that the delegates to the State and National conventions can be chosen in due season.

This will make it necessary for the candidates to visit the dear people in, perhaps, very stormy weather. This will serve as an introduction to the struggles required for success in the political field.

Tuesday's Election.

The election on Tuesday was evidently considered a matter of small importance. About one-third of the voters in this county did not exercise their high prerogative. Benj. Haywood was elected with about 160,000 majority and the candidates for Superior Judge ran behind their party ticket owing to the opposition by the people to the this expensive side dish. (Chas. T. ... was elec.

REMARKABLE SUCCESS.

Of an Enterprising and Progressive Newspaper.

The best daily paper published in Pennsylvania is The Philadelphia Inquirer. Their facilities for obtaining all the news, national, state and local, are the very best to be found anywhere. The new building into which they moved some eight months ago is not only unsurpassed for beauty, but the spacious quarters give them an opportunity to handle news in a more complete and satisfactory manner than any of their contemporaries. Private telegraph wires, special long distance telephones and the regular service of the Associated Press are only a few of the most improved methods for gathering news to be found in the new building. The Inquirer has long been the recognized authority on sporting matters, and is in every way worthy of its tremendous popularity, which has gained it the largest circulation of any Republican newspaper in the United States. The several departments are each under the personal direction of a competent authority on the subjects discussed. Reports, decisions and all the details of the State Supreme Court proceedings are given special attention. The Inquirer carries the largest amount of advertising of any Pennsylvania newspaper and is everywhere acknowledged the best medium of any one cent daily.

A Splendid Offer.

Everybody who is weak, delicate or sickly wants to get well. Dr. Greene, of 35 West 14th St., New York City, makes a specialty of treating patients through letter correspondence. The wisest thing all suffering people can do is to write the Doctor, stating just how they feel, mentioning every symptom of which they complain, and he will answer the letter, explaining each symptom and describing the case so thoroughly that patients understand their complaint as well as though they had talked with the Doctor. He makes his explanations so clear that they cannot help, but understand just what ails them, and he tells exactly what to do to get well. It saves a journey to the city and doctor's fees, and costs nothing. Dr. Greene is the most successful specialist in curing nervous and chronic diseases. He is the discoverer of that wonderful medicine, Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy. Thousands are being cured through his perfect system of letter correspondence. It has been proved successful.

Saturday Evening's Entertainment.

One of the largest, most fashionable and literary audiences of the season, met in the Town Hall last Saturday evening when the class in elocution conducted by Miss Sue J. Stapleton, gave their closing entertainment.

The anticipation of the public was more than realized in this event. The Hall was tastefully decorated with ferns and cut flowers. The evening opened with Orchestra Music by Miss Burns and Messrs. Burns.

It would be superfluous to speak of each recitation they were all given with ease and grace that can be acquired only by close and careful training. The pantomime at the close was a perfect piece of art.

When we consider the shortness of the term, the work accomplished seems almost a marvel.

Miss Stapleton's recitations were given in a masterly way and thoroughly captivated the audience. Should she find it possible to return to Selingsgrove, either for class work or for a private entertainment, she would be heartily welcomed, as the public pronounced her work of the highest literary merit.—Selingsgrove Tribune.

Miss Stapleton will be in Middleburgh on Monday, Nov. 11th for the purpose of conducting a three weeks' term in elocution. It would be well for those wishing to take advantage of this to write for terms, etc., before that date as the class will be limited. Address, Sue J. Stapleton, Box 257, Lewisburg, Pa.

Susquehanna University plays a good Game.

The Bucknell football team defeated the Susquehanna University, at Selingsgrove, on Saturday. The game was hotly contested throughout and the Susquehanna boys are well satisfied with the result. Several players were slightly injured, but the contest was marked by the gentlemanly conduct of all the players. Twenty-five minute halves were played. Bucknell scored two touchdowns in the first and but for a fluke would not have scored in the last. Catterall failed to kick a goal from the last touchdown. Four of the Bucknell players participated in the State College game and the Bucknell team averaged 10 lbs. each heavier than the Susquehannites. Score 16 to 0. The team lined up as follows:

Susquehanna.	Positions.	Bucknell.

Washington House.

The remodeling of the Washington House is about completed. When we came here a year ago, the center of the town appeared anything but creditable. The erection of the new bank building in place of the old shanty on the Bower corner and the converting of the old Washington House to a commodious up-to-date hostelry completely changes the appearance of the square. An annex was built to the Washington House about 40 feet in length and 22 in width. The ground floor is used for a dining room and the second story is divided into 8 new sleeping rooms. The rooms in the main building have been papered and painted. The bar room has been changed and finished in hard wood, large plate glass windows adorn the front side of the building and a porch and balcony made in accordance with the latest style of architecture extends along the entire front of the building. New furniture has been added and improvements provided so as to make the structure a credit to any progressive town. Mr. C. C. Seebold, the proprietor, proposes to put in steam heat and other conveniences in order to make the Washington House a complete up-to-date hotel. The remodeling of the structure was designed by our own fellow-townsmen, Chief Burgess J. F. Stetler. We are glad to welcome such improvements and we congratulate and commend Mr. Seebold for his progressive spirit.
